

Annunciation Catholic Academy

Permission for Use of Electronic Books and Readers for Students in 3rd through 8th Grades

Electronic books and readers can serve a useful purpose within the school setting. Annunciation Catholic Academy, in the interest of supporting reading, sets forth the following guidelines for their use on campus.

1. Only E-Readers or tablets used for the purpose of reading online books may be brought to school. Such devices must be used exclusively for reading. Playing games, surfing the internet, taking or sharing photos or videos, or other related activities are not permitted.
2. Students may only use the devices when instructed to do so by the teacher and in the manner indicated by the teachers. If a student uses the device inappropriately or in a manner not instructed by the teacher, the device will be taken and returned to the parent.
3. The full responsibility for the device, its security and safety, rests with the student.
4. Annunciation Catholic Academy is not responsible for loss, theft or damage to such devices.
5. Only students who have turned in a signed copy of this permission slip may bring electronic books/readers to school.
